GREAT VAN AMBURG SHOWS.

Waterproof Tents--Rain Will Not Spoil the Exhibit.

A sudden downpour of rain or a long-continued drizzle will have no effect on the patrons of the Great Van Amburg Show when it exhibits here. The reason of this will be apparent to everyone who sees the huge tents that will be erected here for the performance. They are all constructed of "mercerized" ducking. This marvelous invention for the water-proofing of material has been in use for rain coats, but up to this year has never been used for tents. People who have used "mercerized" cloth know how it sheds water, and it was the knowledge of this that caused the Van Amburg Shows to have all their tents made out of this material. It is quite a stride in advance of other shows, but it is only in keeping with the progressiveness of the management of these shows. Beneath these tents spectators can sit in comfort and ease during the heaviest of rains and be as dry as if in the finest theater in the country. This is only one of the many novelties that have been added to these shows this season.

It is respectfully suggested that the children attend the afternoon exhibition, when ample time is given to view the large menagerie, likewise avoiding the night crowds. Uniformed ushers will attend every want of the little folks, and the care and attention paid to ladies and children is the first consideration of the management.

The only big circus that will visit here this year is the Great Van Amburg Shows, and the date is Thursday, March 19th.

INTERESTING BASE BALL GAME.

University and Experiment Station Teams Had Fine Game Saturday.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

"Just for a change" the faculty of the University and members of the Experimental Station indulged in a game of base ball on the University grounds Saturday afternoon, which resulted in a victory for the Universities by a score of 18 to 5.

This game, while not largely attended, was most interesting, as well as amusing, and those who attended enjoyed the event equally as well as those who participated in it.

The afternoon was most pleasantly spent in a friendly rivalry, from which both the University and Experiment Station men received a great deal of exercise.

Fire at Hawthorn.

G. D. Folks traveling representative of The Sun, sent a telephone message Saturday night to the effect that two barns belonging to W. S. Moore were consumed by fire during Saturday afternoon, and that for a while great excitement prevailed, as it was feared other damage would follow.

The barns contained feed of various kinds, and two bales of cotton, and the loss amounted to considerable.
There was no insurance.

Law Firm Dissolves.

The law firm of Baker, Matheson & Barker, composed of W. E. Baker, Christopher Matheson and E. G. Barter, has been dissolved by mutual consent.

It is not known just what partnership may be formed in future, but it is rumored that Mr. Barker has acquired offices and will continue the practice of his profession in this city.

THE NEWS FROM MELROSE.

A Delightful Box Party--Celebration of a Birthday--Other Notes.

Melrose, March 14.--The box supper given on Friday night in aid of Trinity church was a big success socially as well as financially.

The town hall had been very prettily decorated by Mrs. Hamlyn and Mrs. Treadwell, aided by a willing band of volunteers. Numerous flags and waving plumes of Japanese bamboo ornamented the walls. A long table was set down the middle of the hall and on the tablecloth was a garland of bamboo sprigs intertwined with red ribbon. Three pretty lamps at equal distance were separated by six red bells swinging from the ceiling.

"Friends in need are friends indeed," is a true saying, and in this case well fulfilled, for the girls, big and little, responded most generously to the appeal for help, and seldom has been seen such a beautiful display of boxes. They were each one perfect works of art, showing such individual taste and color schemes-- and, by the way, the girls' partners enjoyed the contents later on, showing that the inside was worthy of its covering.

C. P. Huffman most kindly auctioned off the boxes, and it is needless to say, did it in his usual eloquent way.
The bidding was lively, and the proceeds amounted to more than the fund required.

A most hearty vote of thanks is tendered by Trinity church to all the many helpers for the good cause.

Mrs. H. Sutton presided over the coffee table. An enjoyable dance at the Huffman House was indulged in later on.

Newly registered at the Huffman House are Mr. and Mrs. J. Cocks, Lake Nopaskong, N. J., and H. A.
Warneke, Elizabeth, N. J.

The Huffman House has enjoyed a very good season, being well filled with guests ever since the opening of the winter season.

Miss Flora Morris gave an at-home party on Wednesday night in honor of her guest, Miss M. Owens, of Atlanta, Ga., and from all reports it was a very enjoyable affair.

Miss Dorothy Waters' seventh birthday party was a delightful function. It took the shape of a most delicious lunch served in the pavilion of Mr. Hamlyn, on the shore of the Melrose Cove. A beautiful birthday cake, a real work of art in that line, came all the way from Uniontown, Pa., as a surprise from her father, Rev. J. A. Waters. Her friends wish her many happy returns of the day.

The machinery of the new boat was set in motion for the first time yesterday and worked beautifully.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Mosier and Miss J. Mosier, of Uniontown, Pa., are the guests of Mrs. Waters at Bay View Cottage for a few days.

STOP THE STRENUOUS LIFE.

Weakens the Tissues and Lessens Organic Vitality.

The stress and strain of the strenuous life in both city and country tends towards stomach troubles. Five people suffer today where one did ten years ago with sick headache, dizziness, flatulence, distress after eating, specks before the eyes, bloating, nervousness, sleeplessness and the many other symptoms of indigestion.

All who are suffering with stomach troubles, and that means at least two out of three in Gainesville and other towns, should use Micon stomach tablets. Nothing else is as safe, yet effective; nothing else can be so thoroughly relied upon to relieve all troubles from indigestion as Micon.

So reliable is Micon in its curative action that J. W. McCollins & Co., with every 5-cent box they sell, give a guarantee to refund the money unless the remedy cures.

Telephone System for Leesburg.

Leesburg, Ga., March 14.--The citizens are preparing to erect a telephone system for the use of the town, and it is expected to have it operating within a few days.

LAST DAY OF CHAUTAUQUA

Program Was Full of Interest, and Was Thoroughly Enjoyed.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

The last day of the Florida Winter Chautauqua for 1908 was one full of interest, the program at each session being well rendered. The moving pictures were especially fine, and pronounced the best ever seen here.

Dr. Clarence B. Strouse arrived in the city yesterday, and felt very much aggrieved over the fact that the people of Gainesville had not rallied with more substantial support to this enterprise, which he declares is the best thing Gainesville ever had, morally, and otherwise. He states that the Chautauqua management is behind about $400, and on Monday night he will endeavor to make up a part of this deficiency by an extra entertainment.

With this idea in view, Dr. Strouse has arranged for a special benefit entertainment Monday night, at which time there will be special features.
The famous Vitagraph moving pictures have been induced to remain, and the management of the Mid-Winter Exposition in Jacksonville, appreciating Dr. Strouse's friendship, have consented to send the great Japanese performers for this night. This aggregation are among the finest in the world, having been the leading attraction at the Jamestown Exposition, and hold the same position at the Mid-Winter Exposition.

This is a special benefit for the Chautauqua, and Dr. Strouse hopes to see a large crowd present. He will address the audience, and will tell them what he has in store for Gainesville.

The Chautauqua tickets will not be honored at this session, and all are expected to pay the price of admission, which will be reasonable.

SEA ISLAND COTTON.

While Quiet, Savannah Market Shows Signs of Improvement.

Savannah, Ga., March 14.--The market for Sea Islands was quiet and easy during the past week. Most of the business done was in extra choice, choice and extra fine, which grades were, at some concessions from previous quotations.

The demand was mainly from Northern mills; and while trade conditions North are still unsatisfactory, there is some evidence of improvement.
At the close the market was quiet, with some indications of an increase in the demand.

The following prices are based on factors' quotations and are revised weekly on Fridays:

WILL GIVE EXCURSION.

M. E. Saunders Wants to Give Friends a Good Time Thursday.

M. E. Saunders, always looking after the comfort and entertainment of his friends, has arranged to give an excursion next Thursday, the 19th inst., to the handsome grave of M.
J. Ward, Yacuma, and expects a good crowd. Mr. Saunders, who is enthusiastic, desires to induce settlers here, and upon this occasion will take three prospective buyers on the trip, which may result in their locating here.

While the party will be a small one, Mr. Saunders desires to give them a good time.

FRIDAY'S SESSION OF THE CHAUTAUQUA

Miss Hollister Held Interesting Meeting of W. C. T. U.

AN INTERESTING AFTERNOON

Feature of the Afternoon Was Lecture by DeWitt Miller of Philadelphia, Which Was Inspiring--Moving Pictures in the Evening.

At 9:30 Friday morning Miss Hollister held her W. C. T. U. meeting, and also the undivided attention of her small though appreciative audience.
So many of us have but a faint conception of the wonderful work that is being done along these lines, and we beg of all who can to hear this charming woman who tells in such a bright, intelligent manner what they are doing and what they want us to do here in our beautiful city to keep it a place where our girls and boys may grow up in a pure atmosphere.
Come this morning, all who can, but if that be impossible come at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Mothers, come and bring your young people, as she has a message for both.

The work done by Mrs. Adams is of the very best and everyone is obliged to give it their closest attention and not be gaping at their neighbor to see if he is as graceful as they. It completely absorbs one, and would do one good if only for the fact that it draws you out of your cares and troubles and you seem to be fascinated by the little lady upon the rostrum. We are sorry that there is only one more lesson.

At 3 o'clock the Otterbein Quartette gave another one of their charming concerts. The first number was the beautiful hymn made famous by President McKinley, "Lead, Kindly Light," and the people fairly held their breath for fear of losing one note. This was followed by several numbers that were enjoyed to the utmost. This quartette is a gem in itself. Each one is an artist, and their voices seem to blend so perfectly that it is one beautiful voice with the different shadings of sweet sounds welded together.

The lecture by the great orator, De-Witt Miller, "The Self-Sufficiency of the Republic," was a masterpiece, and was enjoyed by all. He spoke along many interesting lines in his talk on the wonderful amalgamating power of the people of this republic to take foreigners from every climate and in a short process of moulding bring forth good Americans. Spoke of the love we should have for "Old Glory," who is our protector at home and abroad. In all it was a lecture replete with good things and one that all good Americans would do well to heed.

The evening was taken up with what delights all hearts, some of the great moving pictures, and another given by the Quartette and Hollister.

Today is the last day, and we want to make it our best. Come, mother, father, brother, sister; show your appreciation of this last day of one of our best Chautauquas and, also, it may be our last. 't has surely been a great uplift to Gainesville.

FIRE AT TRENTON.

Residence Occupied by F. C. Browning Was Destroyed by Fire.

A telephone message was received Saturday night from Trenton to the effect that the elegant residence occupied by H. F. Brown and occupied by F. C. Browning and family, was destroyed by fire.

The fire is about 1000 rods from Gainesville, and it is expected that the loss will be about $100,000.

FLORIDA GROWERS WANT BETTER RATE

Discrimination by Transportation Lines Is Unreasonable.

CHARGES ARE VERY EXORBITANT.

Fruits and Produce May be Shipped from Havana, Cuba, San Juan, Porto Rico, and Other Points at Much Less Rate Than from Florida.

The Florida Fruit and Vegetable Shippers' Protective Association, which found its origin with the Gainesville Melon Growers' Association a little more than a year ago, and of which Frank D. Warner of this city has the honor to be president, has issued a circular to the growers of Florida regarding rates from Florida and competing points, which is bound to prove of interest, as it shows the great and unjust discrimination of the transportation lines between Florida and other points.

Representatives of the Association, including President Warner and other prominent growers of the State, appeared in Washington, before the Interstate Commerce Commission, on February 6, to represent their side of the case in a complaint filed, asking for more equitable rates on Florida perishable products to all markets.

The argument was taken up before the Commission, but owing to a pressure of time of that body with other matters, the hearing was continued until the 18th inst., when it will be resumed in Jacksonville.

Association Circular.

The following circular, issued by and under direction of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Shippers' Association, will prove of especial interest at this time:

"It is not generally known among Florida fruit and vegetable growers that this Association had filed a complaint before the Interstate Commerce Commission in an effort to secure more equitable rates on Florida perishable products to all markets of the country, and the establishment of carload rates and a carload minimum to Eastern markets, and to all markets not favored with both carload and less than carload rates. The case was partly heard in Washington, D. C., on February 6th, 7th and 8th, and owing to lack of time was continued until March 18th, and transferred to Jacksonville, Fla.

"In order to show briefly the discrimination against Florida products attention is called to the following illustrations, showing freight charges on various Florida products compared with freight charges on similar products grown elsewhere, but competing in the same markets at the same time:

"Oranges—From Havana, Cuba, to New York City, 34 cents; San Juan, Porto Rico, to New York City, 26 1/2 cents; Kingston, Jamaica, to New

Does Your Heart Beat

Yes, 100,000 times each day.
Does it send out good blood or bad blood? You know, for good blood is good health; bad blood, bad health. And you know precisely what to take for bad blood—Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Doctors have endorsed it for 60 years.

One frequent cause of bad blood is a sluggish liver. This produces constipation. Poisonous substances are then absorbed into the blood.

districts (over 3,000 miles), to New York City, 82.8 cents; Florida, Arcadia, (only 1,200 miles), to New York City, 75 1/2 cents.

"Pineapples—From Havana, Cuba, to New York City, per crate, 39 1/2 cents; San Juan, Porto Rico, to New York City, 31 1/2 cents; Delray (all rail), to New York City, 80 1/2 cents; Havana (via Mobile), to Chicago, 59 1/2 cents; Delray to Chicago, 89.6 cents.

"Vegetables—Tomatoes, from Havana to Chicago, 51 cents; tomatoes, from Boynton to Chicago, 58 1/2 cents; tomatoes, Crystal Springs to Chicago, 26 cents; lettuce, New Orleans to New York City, 43 cents; lettuce, Palmetto to New York City, 63 cents; Celery, Los Angeles to Boston, 62 1/2 cents; celery, Sanford to Boston, 63 cents;

"Cucumbers—From New Orleans to New York, per crate, 37 1/2 cents; Gainesville to New York, 52 cents.

"The rate is lower from California to Boston, a distance of over 3,000 miles, than from Sanford to Boston, only 1,500 miles.

"Similar comparisons could be made to all markets in the country, showing discrimination against Florida on the part of the transportation companies.
How much longer will the Florida growers continue to stand idly by and see markets taken away from them by transportation companies, that belong to Florida, owing to her geographical position?

"Growers, get together. Organize local and county associations, and cooperate with the State organization in securing competitive and carload rates to which they are entitled on Florida products to all markets."

Pof. H. A. Howell of Havana, Cuba, Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Cure.

"As long ago as I can remember my mother was a faithful user and friend of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, but never in my life have I realized its true value until now," writes Prof.
H. A. Howell, of Howell's American School, Havana, Cuba. "On the night of February 3rd our baby was taken sick with a very severe cold; the next day was worse and the following night his condition was desperate. He could not lie down and it was necessary to have him in the arms every moment. Even then his breathing was difficult. I did not think he would live until morning. At last I thought of my mother's remedy, Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which we gave, and it afforded prompt relief, and now, three days later, he has fully recovered.
Under the circumstances I would not write a moment in saying that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and only, saved the life of our dear little boy." For sale by all druggists.

Six Peasants Killed.
Voronezh, Russia, March 13.—Six peasants were killed and several others were wounded in an encounter with a detachment of police at the nearby village of Kochetovka. The police went into Kochetovka for the purpose of arresting two members of the peasant revolutionary organization. The intention of the police became known, and the peasants rallied to prevent the carrying out of this plan.

TO BE HELD FOR MURDER.

Tony Bosbey Shot Woman at Evinston, and Must Stand Consequences.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

Tony Bosbey, the negro who shot Savannah Moore, a woman at Evinston, because she rebuked him for mocking her dead father, and from the effect of the wounds it is claimed the woman died, will be compelled to stand trial upon a charge of murder before Justice Smith at Micanopy today.

The story of this uncalled-for tragedy appeared in The Sun a few weeks ago. It will be remembered that Bosbey went to the woman's home, indulged in a great deal of disorder, and when he "mocked" her dead father, who was an unfortunate cripple, she reprimanded him. It is said that Bosbey thereupon shot the woman without provocation, and was afterwards arrested and placed in the Micanopy jail. The feeling ran high, as the people it is said were indignant, and Bosbey was brought to Gainesville for safe-keeping, a lynching being feared.

The woman, who was fatally injured, died Saturday, and Deputy Sheriff C. H. Crisman came to Gainesville Thursday to get his prisoner, who will have to shoulder a charge of murder instead of assault with intent to murder.

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the second bottle I was entirely cured." Why not let it help you? J.

Mrs. Bearden's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Lucinda Bearden, who died at her home in this city on Wednesday night, was held from the residence Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. T. J. Nixon, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating.
The funeral was well attended by friends of the deceased, who gathered to pay their last sad respects. The floral decorations were in evidence as the token of friendship and love from many.

Deceased was eighty-two years of age. She was born in Clinton, S. C., but has been in Florida many years.
She has for years been a devout member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, during a greater part of which time she was actively engaged in church work.

Mrs. Bearden is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Mershon, of this city, and several grandchildren, to all of whom the sympathy of the community is extended.

A BRILLIANT CHURCH WEDDING.

Mr. James Dougherty and Miss Ida Redding Happily United.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:

A most beautiful and impressive wedding was celebrated Wednesday at high noon in the Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends from this and other cities, the bride being Miss Ida S. Redding, daughter of Mr. T. J. Redding, and the bridegroom, Mr. James W. Dougherty of Jacksonville.

The church was artistically decorated with palms, ferns, trailing vines and potted plants. At the terminus of each aisle was a gate surmounted by an arch, the effectiveness of these archways being enhanced by the use of quantities of bamboo. The chancel rail was also covered with bamboo and the pews for the relatives were marked off by white satin ribbons.

The guests were escorted to the pews by the ushers, Messrs. Arthur Albertson and Clifford Haughton, of Jacksonville, Mr. Edward Belote of Pensacola, and Messrs. Sandy Graham, Jim Shands and Addison Pound of this city, college mates and fraternity brothers of the groom. Miss Myrtle Pennell, organist of the church, played a varied program of bridal airs, as the guests assembled.

Promptly at 12 o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, the wedding procession entered. The ushers passed down the aisle, opening the gates for the rest of the party and taking places on either side of the chancel. Then came little Miss Catherine Haile and Master Harry Merchant, flower bearers. Little Miss Haile was attired in a delicate blue crepe de chine accordin-plaited dress which was entirely becoming, while Master Merchant wore a white sailor suit, trimmed in blue anchors.

Then the bridesmaids, Miss Louise Walker of Albany, Ga., Miss Caro Liddon of Ocala, and Miss Blanche Prescott of Dublin, Ga., entered from the left wing of the church, and met the groomsmen, Mr. Tommy Thompson of Bonifay, Mr. Frank Weller of Palatka, and Mr. Roy Corbett of Jacksonville, in front of the altar, and passed down the right aisle toward the rear of the church, the groomsmen crossing over and taking the left aisle to the rear of the church, and coming down opposite aisles, through the gates and up into the chancel on either side.

Then came the maid of honor, Miss Irene McCreary, of this city, and the bride. At the chancel they were met by the bridegroom and his best man, Mr. Basil Stockbridge, of Jacksonville, and the minister, Dr. Carl W. Minor, of Moultrie, Ga., who most impressively pronounced the ring ceremony, as the organist played softly, "O Promise Me."

The bride wore a handsome tailored suit of Copenhagen blue cloth. The maid-of-honor wore an exquisite gown of dainty pink crepe de chine over taffeta, trimmed in Irish point. She wore a most becoming black picture hat and carried a shower bouquet of

THE PERFECT WAY

Scores of Florida Citizens Have Learned It.

If you suffer from backache, there is only one way to cure it. The perfect way is to cure the kidneys.

A bad back means sick kidneys. Neglect it, urinary troubles follow. Doan's Kidney Pills are made for kidneys only.

S. B. Lemons, cigar maker, living at 1311 Ashlet street, Tampa, Fla., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of backache and disorder of the kidneys. Two or three times on account of the pain in my back I was unable to work for several days. The secretions of the kidneys were in a very bad condition, dark in color, and if allowed to stand would become of the consistency of jelly. I tried various remedies, taking what seemed like gallons of medicine and I also put on plasters, but nothing helped me at all until I got Doan's Kidney Pills upon the advice of a friend of mine, and using them according to directions they cured me in a very short time."

white carnations and asparagus ferns.

The bridesmaids were becomingly attired in dainty frocks of blue crepe de chine over taffeta. These effective gowns were completed by black picture hats and shower bouquets of pink carnations.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dougherty left for an extended trip along the East Coast and will be at home in Jacksonville on their return.

The bride is one of Gainesville's most attractive young ladies, and has won for herself an enviable place and a vast number of friends during her residence here. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Dougherty of Jacksonville. He is a member of the Kappa Alpha fraternity at the University of Florida, where he was a student. He is a member of the firm of Dougherty & Dougherty, contractors Jacksonville.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. B. Dougherty, Jacksonville; Dr. Carl W. Minor, Moultrie, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Redding and Miss Maxine Redding, Greenville; Miss Blanche Prescott, Dublin, Ga.; Mrs. S. Walker, and Miss Louise Walker, Albany, Ga.; Miss Caro Liddon, Ocala; Dr. and Mrs. R. L. May, Jacksonville; Mr. J. W. Jackson, Bronson; Mr. Basil Stockbridge, Jacksonville; Miss Blanche Prescott, Dublin, Ga.; Mr. Frank Weller, Palatka, and Mr. Roy W. Corbett, Jacksonville.

DELIGHTFUL BRIDAL RECEPTION.

Mrs. W. C. Jackson Entertained in Honor of Bridal Party Tuesday.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:

Mrs. W. C. Jackson gave a buffet luncheon or supper at her comfortable home, 508 S. University street in honor of the bridal party for Mr. James Dougherty and Miss Ida Redding, the happy marriage of whom occurred at high noon Wednesday.

This was one of the most enjoyable, as well as most delightful affairs given in this city for some time.

In the diningroom, the beautiful scheme of pink and blue was carried out, the centerpiece, a cut glass vase, being filled with carnations on a reflector surrounded by four candelabras with pink candles, shaded with pink. This scheme was further emphasized with blue and pink ices.

The luncheon table was presided over by Mrs. Dr. H. L. May of Jacksonville, and Mrs. Frankie Dell of this city, with guests.

After partaking of the luncheon, the party repaired to the sitting room, where the eating of the bridal cake occupied much amusement. Many hands were also occupied with wedding presents were also displayed in this room, all of which were admired by the guests.

A delicious fruit punch was served. Miss Maxine Redding, sister of the bride, acted as the punch bowl.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. Dougherty, parents of the bride; Jacksonville; Messrs. Basil Stockbridge and Roy Corbett, Jacksonville; Mr. Frank Weller, Palatka, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Redding, Greenville; Mr. and Mrs. Haughton, Jacksonville; brother and sister of the bride; Messrs. Caro Liddon, Ocala, and Blanche Prescott, Dublin, Ga.; bridesmaids; Rev. Dr. Minor, Moultrie, Ga., the officiating clergyman; Mr. John F. Jackson, Bronson.

BURGLARS, VISIT BURKHIM.

Entered Mysteriously and Left in Same Way, After Securing $5.

From Friday's Daily Sun:

There is some mysterious burglars working in the city, and their mania seems to be not for "worldly goods," but for money. It's the "filthy lucre" they want, and nothing more, as has been plainly evidenced by the fact that in two instances they have entered stores, molested the money drawers, and left everything else untouched.

This is the second time they have entered stores on the public square within the past ten days. This time L. J. Burkheim was the victim, and some time during Wednesday night they entered the store, tried the safe and found that the outer door yielded easily to their efforts. They found the inside department containing the money locked, however, but in a lower drawer secured $5 which had been left there in keeping as the property of one of Mr. Burkheim's little daughters. After relieving the safe of this amount they disappeared as quietly as they had entered, making no apparent attempt to take anything in the stock, which they could have easily done.

The most mysterious part of these robberies is the fact that the burglars entered without causing any destruction, and leave the place "in good order," to use the expression. Not a break of any kind was discovered about Mr. Burkheim's store, which leads the victims and the officers to believe that in some manner duplicate keys to doors have been secured.

It will be remembered that a few nights ago some person or persons entered the store of Chitty & Co. under the same conditions, prying open the inside safe door with a hatchet. Notwithstanding that there was more than $200 in the safe, no money was secured, and it is believed that the perpetrators were frightened away before they had time to secure the booty.

The officers have no definite clue, but one stated to The Sun Thursday that two strange colored boys who have been loitering about the streets are suspected. These boys it is understood left the city later in the day, but may be in hiding, awaiting another opportunity.

King Alfonso Leaves Barcelona.

The candidates are "getting busy," and so are the farmers—preparing for their crops.

The beautiful and majestic shade trees are admired by visitors to Gainesville above everything else; yet some of the officials would fell them to the ground.

The House Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures has reported in favor of the bill to restore to certain coins the motto "In God We Trust," which was removed from such coins by order of the President. This is a slap at Teddy.

The recent destruction by fire of a school house in Collingwood, Ohio, in which nearly two hundred children lost their lives, has caused the authorities throughout the country to take to providing proper means of escape in the public school buildings. Every school house should be provided with swinging doors in each room.

H. C. Peace, who was raised in the Micanopy neighborhood, but now cashier of the Suwannee River Bank at White Springs, is a candidate for the Legislature from Hamilton county. Mr. Peace's Alachua county friends will be glad to learn of his prosperity and all of them will join The Sun in wishing him success in his race for Representative.

A. U. Hilleary, ex-sheriff of Alachua county, is a candidate for county commissioner from District No. 4, as will be seen by his announcement elsewhere in this issue of The Sun. Mr. Hilleary is quite popular in his section, and if nominated will make a good representative, as he is a man of advanced ideas and fully capable of performing the duties of this office.

Capt. W. D. Dickinson announces in this issue of The Sun for re-election as tax collector of Alachua county. Inasmuch as this position gives the incumbent the opportunity of dealing directly with the people who pay the taxes, it is probable that Captain Dickinson is acquainted with as many, if not more, of the voters of the county, than any other official, and he will no doubt receive a large vote.

W. J. Matthews of Donnie, one of the oldest and most widely-known citizens of the county, is a candidate for the office of county treasurer before the coming primary, as will be noted by his announcement in today's Sun. Mr. Matthews has served the people as a member of the Board of County Commissioners for a number of years, and has friends in all parts of the county who will give him loyal support.

The tariff tax on boots and shoes is 25 per cent, which tax on necessities a Republican Congress refuses to abolish, although Hon. W. L. Douglas of Massachusetts, just before he was elected Governor, declared that a majority of the New England shoe manufacturers were willing to forego this protection if Congress would give them free hides. Governor Douglas is the largest manufacturer of shoes in the United States, and says the tariff is hindering the export trade of this country.

WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENCE.

Washington, D. C., March 13.—The do-nothing Congressional policy of the Republican leaders has been dawdling along so far without anyone seeking to enliven the proceedings. But it is now reported that word has gone out from the White House that is virtually a threat to the reactionary Republicans of Congress that President Roosevelt has no notion of allowing Congress to adjourn without considering the recommendations set forth in his message to that body. Of course, the President cannot keep Congress in session when it decides to adjourn, but can call an extraordinary session immediately following such adjournment and again call the attention of Congress to what he considers is needed legislation.

President Roosevelt believes he will be supported by the country in such a demand for necessary laws, and even if he does not call Congress together in extra session he can make it plain to the constituents of the reactionary Congressmen that they are "bucking my policies" and are unfit to represent those who believe in reform. The back fire that Mr. Roosevelt can start would certainly make the position of many Republicans decidedly uncomfortable, if not untenable politically.

What legislation does President Roosevelt demand that he thinks of such consequence as would lead him to disrupt his party on the eve of a national election? First, a new employers' liability law, then amendments to the Sherman anti-trust law and for a law governing the issue of securities by interstate corporations. The employers' liability law passed by the last Congress has been decided unconstitutional by the supreme court, so the President, who is now trying to propitiate the labor vote, wants the Knox bill passed, which is now in the hands of the Senate Judiciary Committee, that will evade the objection unanimously announced by the court. Then he recommends the anti-trust law be amended so that pooling and combinations may be legal, and a federal incorporation law, or a license act for interstate corporations. Also to control the issue of securities by such corporations. No bills have yet been introduced to cover these last two recommendations, but are being prepared by those who are friendly to such legislation. There is ample field for almost endless discussion on these matters and until such as the currency bill is out of the way it will hardly be possible to consider the Roosevelt measures. Even if such bills were already reported from committees, as the Knox bill has been, yet the appropriation bills would be in the way of securing time for their discussion.

Congress wants to pass the appropriation bills and adjourn. The President wants Congress to take up this doubtful legislation, which will entail a long debate on interstate commerce, State rights, centralization, and the rights of corporations, labor and capital. Which will prevail is not yet certain.

It is rather singular that President Roosevelt does not insist upon currency reform in his program, but perhaps he thinks that the Congress is certain to pass at least the necessary emergency currency legislation. Such reforms as revising the tariff, which is of far greater importance to the people than all the other legislation, is quietly ignored until after election; or forever, if the tariff protected interests again control Congress. The President does not even urge the one ewe lamb that Senator Beveridge has pleaded for so earnestly, the non-partisan Tariff Commission.

How different would be the political conditions if a Democratic President were in the White House and there were a Democratic Congress with a majority equal to what the Republicans have! Suppose Hon. William L. Douglas of Massachusetts were President?

In an interview on September 23 last he said:

"Apparently the spectacular attacks of the administration at Washington upon all kinds of corporations and industries—the good and the bad, the legitimate and the illegitimate—are made more for political effect than for safe and sane disciplinary regulation. Such attacks may please the galleries, but they are likely to do more harm than good to legitimate business and to the holders of the securities of proper corporations.

"That the methods and tactics of the administration at Washington are doing much to obliterate party lines, I can readily believe; that they will benefit the Republican more than the Democratic party, is far less certain. The Democratic party could, in my opinion, do all possible to abolish special privileges and to give the people a square deal. It should be less spectacular in its methods and more certain in producing substantial results. Above all things, it should take a strong position for immediate tariff reduction on raw materials and foods, and especially for the entire removal of all duties on trust products sold cheaper to foreigners than to Americans."

But Governor Douglas is a reformer with a trained business mind, and not an excitable and erratic recalcitrant like President Roosevelt, demanding the most radical reforms one day and backing down the next day.

What a blessing it would be if Governor Douglas could be President of these United States for four years, and the policies he has announced in his speeches and interviews could be put into practical effect.

ROBERT MILLER.

THE PRIMARY TICKET.

The coming primary ballot will be most fearfully and wonderfully made. Nothing like it has ever been seen by a Florida voter before, and we hope its like will never be seen again. The ticket ought to be two-thirds shorter than it will be, and if by another election steps are not taken to shorten it by leaving off National, State and county committeemen we shall favor having a separate box for county officials, and let the others take their chances.—Bronson Times-Democrat.

The complaint of The Times-Democrat is well founded. Delegates to the National Convention and Presidential electors should also be omitted from the primary ballot, the same being elected by a State convention which should promulgate a platform of principles for the State Democracy. The ballot in the May primary should not be so cumbersome as heretofore, however, as the law has been amended permitting the printing of names of candidates in parallel columns, instead of on a long "string" of paper. Few country printers have been able to print the election tickets in the past, but they can be printed in any county in the State under the new law.

THE HEARST PARTY.

The new political party organized and incorporated by Mr. Hearst as a political trust, bids fair to become a power in the land. It is a corporation composed of radicals. It is the very antithesis of the Democracy, which is a voluntary association of those who desire to uphold a government of law, as opposed to personal government and government by trusts and combines. But it adopts all the Roosevelt policies and nearly all of the Bryan policies, with a view to unifying the advocates of those policies under one system and under one leader, who has been alternately the ally of Democrats and Republicans in New York. It is a great scheme for the destruction of representative government, and for the enthronement of a corporation and a dictator. The cranks will hail its advent.

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Attention is called to the advertisement of Mrs. R. Wilson, which appears in this issue. Mrs. Wilson states that she will continue her special sale of new white goods, laces and embroidery, and offers some rare bargains. —Mrs. Wilson has been for many years engaged in the dry goods business here, and her store has become widely-known for true values and goods that are serviceable. There is an old adage that trouble never comes single-handed, which is especially true in this case, and friends of the afflicted deeply sympathize with them in their misfortune. Friends of Mrs. Goodman, however, will be much gratified to learn that her condition is improved, and all have hopes for her recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ivers, who have been residing for a year or more in this city, left yesterday for their old home in Jacksonville, where they will probably remain for the next three or

Citrus Bloom Dropping

By P. H. Rolfs, Florida Agricultural Experiment Station.

An early spring drought following a moist winter frequently causes a wide-spread and general dropping of bloom. The only way to prevent such dropping of bloom is to be equipped with an irrigating plant.

In some cases, a late freeze, and even chills during the blooming period, may cause a very considerable shedding of the bloom. When this occurs as a result of too low temperature we can do nothing to prevent it.

Another cause of the shedding of bloom is the occurrence during the blooming period of heavy rain-storms and winds. These, however, are not as serious as either cold or drought, since the rains and winds that cause shedding of bloom are usually confined to limited areas.

DROPPING DUE TO WITHER TIP.

The most serious shedding of bloom occurs as the result of an attack of a parasitic fungus, Colletotrichum gloeosporioides. This is a serious trouble, for only too frequently its cause is not recognized, the shedding of the bloom being ascribed to one of the before-mentioned causes, or to the presence of thrips or other insects.

The first sign that we notice in connection with the withertip dropping of bloom is that a great number of unopened flower-buds have fallen from the tree. As this same effect may be the result of other causes, the mere fact that we find unopened flower-buds on the ground should not be considered as proving that we have a case of withertip bloom dropping. Upon closer examination, however, we find that where the bloom has dropped on account of being affected with the withertip fungus, there are little red markings upon it; and the buds or blossoms may be partially, or even entirely, covered by these red patches. By examining such flower-buds or petals in the laboratory it can be easily demonstrated that they are affected by the withertip fungus. By using a strong hand lens one is able to see the minute pustules in which the spores are produced. Such diseased flower-buds and petals, however, differ so strikingly from those that have fallen naturally, that almost every one whose attention has been called to the point is able to distinguish between them, without the aid of a lens. When much bloom has dropped as a result of being affected with the withertip fungus, one almost invariably finds the typical signs of withertip on the tree. The most prominent of these are the dying back of small sprigs, and the very characteristic want of leaves on the inside of the tree. Whenever one sees a tree in the orchard that has no interior foliage, it should be noted as a suspicious specimen.

The withertip fungus which causes the dropping of the flower-buds lives over the winter in the leaves, or in the twigs of the tree, or on fallen fruit. From these sources some of the spores find their way to an open bud, where the fungus grows very rapidly and produces myriads of spores. Bees, flies and other honey-loving insects, visit the affected blossoms, and coming into contact with the fresh spores, not only carry them on their bodies to almost every open blossom on the tree, but in crawling over the unopened buds they convey the spores to these as well. But worse still, the insects which have visited an infected tree carry the spores to other trees in the grove, and from these secondary infections numerous other infections occur in time; so that hundreds of trees that were free from the withertip fungus may become infected from one single tree with diseased blossoms.

REMEDY.

The remedy here suggested has been tried and found sufficient and practical. It is recommended only for cases where one is obliged to use it in order to get a good setting of fruit. The use of this fungicide kills off so many of our friendly fungi that a severe attack of scale insects is very likely to follow.

Spray with Bordeaux mixture (for complete directions for making Bordeaux mixture see Bulletin 16 of the Florida Experiment Station), directing the spray against the open bloom, avoiding as far as possible the spraying of the foliage, and also avoiding an over-dose. If so much Bordeaux mixture is used that it runs down the limbs, it will kill a great many of our fungus friends that are there preying on scale insects. Under ordinary circumstances, no one would recommend that Bordeaux mixture should be sprayed directly into the bloom. In doing this we know that a certain quantity of the bloom will be killed by the fungicide, but so much is saved from the ravages of the withertip fungus that there need be no hesitation when one has to apply it.

DROPPING OF NEWLY-SET FRUIT.

Sometimes this fungus does not attack the bloom, but attacks the newly-set fruit after the blooming period is over. Not unfrequently one may see the ground under a citrus tree strewn with thousands of small fruits, every one attacked by withertip fungus. In this case the same remedy used for the shedding of bloom will be found useful.

STREETS BEING IMPROVED.

Street Inspector Warren With His Force Trimming Shade Trees.

The various streets of the city are being improved in appearance by the trimming of the magnificent shade trees. Gainesville has always enjoyed the reputation of having the prettiest shaded streets and the most handsome oak and other shade trees in the State, but, owing to the torn-up condition of a number of the thoroughfares on account of sewerage and paving, an opportunity has not been afforded to get to trim them.

Street Supervisor Chas. C. Warren, with a good force of men, is now busily engaged in trimming the trees, which renders their appearance much better, and affords a better view of the streets, as the trimming affords an archway which is inspiring to the eye to not only the visitors, but our home-folks as well.

Supervisor Warren is to be congratulated upon the efficiency and thoroughness of his work, which is appreciated by the people.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

High School Literary Society Had Interesting Meeting Wednesday.

The High School Literary Society met Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the High School Auditorium and a nice program was carried out, which was both entertaining and instructive.

This society is quite young at present, nevertheless it contains the very finest material in the school. We hope that the people of this city will not think that this is compulsory. It has been formed by the young ladies and gentlemen of the school that had sufficient energy to know a good thing when they saw it.

A very fine program was rendered, which was as follows:

Quotations—Goethe.
Life of Goethe—Casper Peeler.
Piano solo—Ida McDonald.
Play, "The Train to Mauro."—Earle Taylor, Mr. Bright, Sam Mixon, Johnnie Buttermilk, Katie White, Mrs. Buttermilk, Quartette—Dallas Bowers, Chas. Simpson, Earle Kelley, Tom McBeath.
Current Events—Alexander Harper.
Piano solo—Dalton Rosborough.
High School Local News—Julia Lunch.

An Intelligent Canine.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:

"Brock," the pedigreed pointer belonging to Judge J. A. Carlisle, is probably the most competent judge of a "good thing" of any member of the canine family in Gainesville.

Judge Carlisle informs the reporter that it is the habit of "Brock," to bring him The Sun promptly every morning upon its delivery at his home. Sunday morning, however, the faithful dog failed to deliver his favorite newspaper with the usual promptness, and upon investigation he observed a number of circulars scattered through the front yard. The Judge thereupon ordered "Brock" to bring him THE paper, and in compliance with orders, after thorough inspection, the dog brought him The Sun. That's the best evidence that even a good dog knows a good thing.

It has been the general complaint of subscribers that their dogs usually destroy the papers early in the morning, but it is different in this case—and in "Brock" the Judge has a prize.

A Baby

Should be sunshine in the home, and will be if you give it White's Cream Vermifuge, the greatest worm medicine ever offered to suffering humanity. This remedy is becoming the permanent fixture of well regulated households. A mother, with children, can't get along without a bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge in the house. It is the purest and best medicine that money can buy. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Bitten by Rattlesnake.

Cartersville, Ga., March 13.—James B. Crawford, a prominent citizen of Cassville, near this city, is dangerously ill from the effects of a rattlesnake bite inflicted upon him while he was in his cellar taking up potatoes. While picking up the potatoes Mr. Crawford felt something sting him on the finger. Two hours later it began to swell and pain him severely. A physician pronounced the wound a snake bite. The cellar was afterwards searched and the reptile found and killed.

Don't Complain.

If your chest pains and you are unable to sleep because of a cough, buy a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and you won't have any cough. Get a bottle now and that cough will not last long. A cure for all pulmonary diseases. Mrs. J.—, Galveston, Tex., writes: "I can't say enough for Ballard's Horehound Syrup. The relief it has given me is all that is necessary for me to say." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Defeat Constitutional Prohibition. Birmingham, Ala., March 13.—Constitutional prohibition was defeated in the Mississippi senate by a vote of 21 ayes to 19 nays, a majority of three-fifths being required. The defeat of the measure was not unexpected.

Alice Roosevelt's Wedding

A positive cure for bilious headaches, constipation, chills and fever, and all liver complaints. J. C. Smith, Little Rock, Ark., writes: "Horebine is the greatest liver medicine known. No Operation

Mrs. Malinda Akers, of Basham, Va., writes: "I had what doctors call 'prolapse,' and couldn't stand straight. I had pain in my back and shoulders, and was very irregular and profuse. Doctors said an operation was needed, but I couldn't bear the thought of the knife. After taking three bottles of Wine of Cardui, I could walk around. Can now do my housework and am in splendid health."

ANOTHER WEEK EXTRAORDINARY SHOWING OF NEW AND UP-TO-DATE

Embroideries, Laces and White Goods

Owing to the fact of another shipment which we received last week we will continue this showing all week of March 16th. New White Goods, New Laces, New Embroideries, will be added to last week's lots. We wish to extend the invitation to ALL to come this week, look the new creations over—you will be in nowise under any obligation to purchase. We will be only too glad to have you come, take your own time, look them over—memorize our prices and qualities as far as you can.

It is a Common Slander, Purposely, Widely and Industiously Circulated By Some Competitors, That THEIR Goods Are BETTER Than Ours

This misrepresentation is all farce, as any reasonable person knows. THE FIXED POLICY AT THE WILSON STORE SHALL EVER BE TO collect ONLY TRUSTWORTHY GOODS and sell them at Lowest Prices. Faithful adherence to this method shall ever prove the strong plank in our platform. No matter what the rattle and talk, or the joggly statements and claims of competitors, you may come to the WILSON STORE in all confidence that the prices are as low—OFTEN TIMES LOWER—and the qualities and assortments AS GOOD as elsewhere. Advertising phrases, "smooth" and "sleek," "honeyed" and "hollow," costing little and WORTH LESS, are common enough, but when you judge the merchandise, MERIT alone should fix values.

We have additional help with us now, and will add more from time to time as needed, and pledge you faithful and appreciative service. Come and make our store headquarters—glad to have you examine our stock at all times, whether you wish to purchase that day or not.

We Call Special Attention This Week to These Three Lots Embroideries, With Inserting to Match:

LOT ONE	LOT TWO	LOT THREE
Edging and Inserting at 5c, worth as high as 10c	Edging and Inserting at 10c, worth as high as 20c	Edging and Inserting at 19c, worth as high as 35c

We believe these are the Biggest Values ever offered in Gainesville. Ask your neighbor about it—she saw and bought last week. You will certainly do yourself an injustice if you miss this chance. Favor us and benefit yourself by spending an hour with us one day this week. OUR BEST GUARANTEE—For any item bought of us, and after a week, or a month, you furnish us with sufficient proof that same item was bought at same time elsewhere, at a less figure, we will GLADLY refund you the difference, and thank you for the information.

But it will not pay those looking for the "real thing" in dry goods and millinery to pass this advertisement without studying it, for there is to be found there things which will interest them. The big millinery opening, which promises to eclipse anything of the kind ever seen or attempted in this section, will be held on March 17 and 18, when a special invitation is extended the ladies. The Hyde Company is now in the elegant Hill building, designed and constructed after their own ideas and for their own use, and it may be truthfully stated that this is the most modern, up-to-date place of its kind in Florida, Jacksonville, Tampa and Pensacola not excepted.
